

ECAWA on the Road 2009

ICT, Your Money and Your Classroom

The Educational Computing Association of Western Australia (Inc) presents

Professional Learning Opportunities in Port Headland and Karratha

for all teachers – primary, middle school and secondary
– in all schools

The Australian Technical College – Pilbara is hosting two professional learning opportunities for teachers - in Port Hedland on Wednesday the 4th of November and Karratha on Friday the 6th of November.

ECAWA on the Road 2009 - ICT, Your Money and Your Classroom will visit Port Hedland and Karratha, bringing information about Consumer and Financial Literacy and workshops for teachers.

The Consumer & Financial Literacy package, consisting of a Teacher Guide with resources to assist teachers to embed consumer and financial literacy across the curriculum, will be supplied to all attendees, and ECAWA will offer a full day of workshops and presentations with an emphasis on the use of ICT to support Consumer and financial literacy in the classroom.

All teachers are invited to participate in this professional learning opportunity.
