ECAWA DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES TEACHER OF THE YEAR 2017

In association with the AUSTRALIAN COUNCIL FOR COMPUTERS IN EDUCATION and the
AUSTRALIAN COMPUTER SOCIETY

Each year the Australian Council for Computers in Education (ACCE) and the Australian Computer Society (ACS) host the ACCE Digital Technologies Teacher of the Year Award. This award is intended to recognise the importance of the work of Australian teachers who are innovatively employing the Digital Technologies Curriculum in their K-12 schools.

Nominees for this award are usually the individual state Digital Technologies Teacher of the Year winners.

Nominations are now being called for the Educational Computing Association of Western Australia's Digital Technologies Teacher of the Year Award.

Those nominated must be 'Individual' ECAWA members who are innovatively employing the Digital Technologies Curriculum in their K-12 schools.

While it is understood that university based educators, school administrators and district / regional personnel also contribute to the professional computer education community, this award focuses on recognising the efforts of the efforts of K- 12 classroom-based educators. Nominees must be based in a school and considered a member of that school's teaching staff.

To be considered for ECAWA's Digital Technology Teacher of the Year Award, educators may be nominated by their peers or may nominate themselves.

Selection Process

The selection committee for the award will consist of a panel of committee members designated by the President of ECAWA, and will consider the submissions according to the criteria. Any current nominee will not be eligible to serve on the selection committee. The selection process remains confidential.
